

The Psalms: Infallible Inspiration For Living - Psalm 97 Inspiration for Our Actions

There are two focal points in Psalm 97:

Psalm 97 contains ten declarations of the glory of God's imposing majesty:

- (1) His majesty invokes _____. (97:2a, 4)
- (2) His majesty is grounded in _____. (97:2b)
- (3) In His majesty, He effortlessly _____ all who oppose Him. (97:3)
- (4) In His majesty, nothing can _____ against His judgments. (97:5)
- (5) The _____ testifies to His majesty. (97:6)
- (6) His majesty makes all the gods of man and those who trust in them look STUPID! (97:7)
- (7) His majesty makes His people _____! (97:8)
- (8) His majesty is _____. (97:9)
- (9) His majesty is seen in the eternal _____ He provides for all who belong to Him. (97:10b)
- (10) His majesty is seen in the _____ He gives His people. (97:11)

Psalm 97 gives us three rational responses to understanding the glory of God's imposing majesty:

- (1) There is never a reason to _____! (97:1)
- (2) There is never a reason to justify _____. (97:10)
- (3) There is never a reason to let go of _____. (97:12)

Challenge: What word best describes the _____ of your life, and what does it say you believe about God?

Other Scriptures Mentioned: Exodus 19:16-19, 1 Chronicles 29:10-11, Psalm 19:1, Daniel 4:37, Matthew 24:30, John 10:28-29, Romans 1:20; 8:28, Revelation 1:7; 19:1-2; 20:9.