

Love is ...
Redemptive. Love Gives Life To Others
Ruth 4:1-22

- (1) Boaz calls for a _____ concerning Naomi's land and marriage to Ruth. (4:1-6)
- (2) Boaz publicly commits to _____ Naomi's land and marry Ruth. (4:7-10)
- (3) The town elders and witnesses to Boaz's commitment overwhelmingly _____ it! (4:11-12)
- (4) God blessed _____ by giving Ruth a son. (4:13-15)
- (5) God blessed Israel and _____ by giving Ruth a son! (4:16-22)

Conclusions: Love is _____.

Four ways Christ, as our kinsmen redeemer, exemplifies that love is redemptive.

- (1) A kinsmen redeemer had to be _____. Jesus had a choice, and He chose to pay the price to redeem us. (John 10: 11, 14-15, 17-18, (Titus 2:14)
- (2) A kinsmen redeemer had to be _____. Jesus Christ, who has always been the eternal son of God, became man so that He could justly pay the penalty required of man. (1 Corinthians 15:2-22, Hebrews 2:14-17)
- (3) A kinsmen redeemer had to be able to _____ it. Because Jesus Christ was not just man, but equally God, He could do what no mere man could do – He could fully satisfy God's wrath on our sin, and as such, overcome the eternal curse of death for us! (Romans 3:23-25, Ephesians 1:7, 1 Peter 1:18-19)
- (4) A kinsmen redeemer brought glory to a father who no longer had an _____. Adam's sin cut us off from the inheritance God created for us. However, Christ redeemed us, and as such, glorified God by restoring us to the inheritance prepared for us by the Father! (Ephesians 1:5, Galatians 4:4-7)

Challenge: Christ's love is _____. He labors to rescue us. "Every Family has a Family. Every Person has a Person." Who's your family's family? Who's your person?
