

Amos
Part 1: The Heart of a Prophet
Brokenness (Amos 5:1-5; 7:1-9)

There are two clear testimonies of Amos's genuine brokenness over the sinful reality of Israel.

- (1) Amos _____ over Israel (5:1-5)
- (2) Amos pleaded for _____ for Israel. (7:1-9)

New Testament Application - (Matthew 23:37-38, Luke 19:41-42, Romans 9:2-3, 2 Corinthians 12:21, Philippians 3:18-19)

As we respond to the sin of others with the TRUTH, we need to remember the following:

- (1) We cannot effectively point a lost world _____ Jesus if we hate it. (Matthew 5:43-48, Romans 2:4, 2 Peter 3:9)
- (2) We cannot effectively point rebellious brothers and sisters _____ to Christ if we hate them for turning away. (Galatians 6:1-2, Ephesians 4:31, 2 Thessalonians 3:6-15, 1 John 3:15)

Challenge: What does the attitude of your prayers, or lack of prayers, for those who are openly rebelling against God say about the condition of your heart? What do your prayers say about your heart for those who have sinned against _____?
